SCRIPTURE

This I say for your own benefit; not to put a restraint upon you, but to promote what is [appropriate] and to secure undistracted devotion to the Lord. (I Corinthians 7:35)

OBSERVATION

An undistracted devotion—that’s the highest devotion of all! It’s so easy to get distracted. So many things going on that filtering out unnecessary things seems to become more and more difficult... especially when the “unnecessaries” are marketed so well. Things that are good but not strategic, nice but not eternal—these can take up the lion’s share of life.

APPLICATION

The Scriptures tell me that devotion to God is something I must secure. Like locking up a bicycle lest it be stolen, or securing a boat to a dock lest it drift, so too I must “secure undistracted devotion to the Lord.” I cannot take this for granted. Not securing it invites the enemy to steal it.

I not only must make my devotions a habit but I also must guard that time. I must not allow appointments or busy days to steal my devotions.

And looking at devotion in the larger sense, I must not let anything cause me to compromise or let down my guard. My devotion to Christ cannot be distracted by what Paul (see I Corinthians 7) tells me about—women, emotional affairs, or anything of that nature. I become devoted to my wife, and consistent in my times before God, by filtering and pruning constantly anything not eternally fruitful. In doing so, I secure undistracted devotion.

PRAYER

Lord, help me to guard my time with You. It’s so easy to let an appointment or a ministry activity take its place. Thank You for reminding me often.

BLANK SAMPLE

*“All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness;
that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work.”*
